Departs: Monday 4th March

Returns: Friday 8th March

Only £429

No Single supplement

Itinerary*

Day 1 Departing your local departure point we travel to North Wales and to the Royal Victoria Hotel in Llanberis, our base for the next 4 nights with dinner, bed and breakfast and an all inclusive drinks package provided.

Day 2 After a leisurely breakfast we join our coach for the short journey to the fascinating Italianate village of Portmeirion. Designed and built by Sir Clough Williams-Ellis, Portmeirion has served as the location for numerous films and television shows, most famously as "The Village" in the 1960s show The Prisoner.

Day 3 Today, we take a lovely scenic drive to the pretty village of Betws-y-Coed where we spend time for coffee & a browse of the shops before continuing through the Conway Valley to the "Queen of Welsh resorts", Llandudno. Here we can spend time enjoying its beautiful Victorian architecture, Edwardian elegance, shops and attractions.

Day 4 This morning we travel over the Menai strait to the Isle of Anglesey where we visit Beaumaris with its medieval castle, lovely beach and Victorian pier. After spending time here we then pay a visit to the National Slate Museum where we will see a short film and a live slate splitting demonstration.

Day 5 After breakfast today we return home with suitable comfort stops en-route.
